Opis nemovitosti

We are offering this attractive, modern and well-presented house with lovely sea views on the island of Murter.

It is situated 200 m from the shore, where there are many beautiful beaches for swimming safely, and 500 m from the centre of the village where there many options for cafes, small shops and bars.

The house is in a good sized plot of 350 m sq with a beautifully landscaped and maintained garden that includes a substantial barbecue and a parking area.

The house consists of ground and first floor with a total floor area of 150m2 and it has been divided into four one-bedroom apartments which are used to let to tourists.

The house is being sold fully furnished and is in good decorative condition.

It has a cellar and a terrace overlooking the sea.

The Orientation is south / west.

For further information please contact our office in Split, and we can arrange for you to view the property.
