Opis nemovitosti

Croatia Property Sales are delighted to offer this unique stone house in the World Heritage site of Trogir. The property spread over three levels, and the ground floor may be used for commercial or domestic purposes. It would make a superb holiday destination or second home.

It is situated in Trogir Old Town, an island connected by bridge to the main land and to the bigger island of Čiovo. Trogir has been designated as a world heritage site as it has barely changed since it was built in the early middle ages.

The house itself is 85m sq. over 3 levels. The ground floor is currently a commercial space with an independent entrance, covering nearly 30m sq. The first floor has outside stairs leading into the kitchen, bathroom and bedroom.

There is a terrace from the kitchen. The top floor has a large living room with a terrace. The house is equipped with all mod-cons including air-conditioning.

The house is tucked away in the charming narrow streets but still only 50m away from the lively Riva (Town promenade) and the sea.

There is access by car for unloading etc. but normal parking is 100m. There is no casual driving in the Town because of the narrow streets and lack of space.
