Opis nemovitosti

We are pleased to offer this attractive house in a small village 100m from the shore.

The village is close to Supetar, on the north coast of the island, facing the mainland, and is very much unspoilt and typical Dalmatian in character.

There are small shops, bars, and a small harbour, and 10 minutes walk in any direction brings you to either a beautiful part of the coast or natural woodland.

The house itself has 3 floors.

The ground and first floor were designed as two bedroom flats, with open plan family-style kitchens, and with separate entrances. They have been well maintained and are very presentable, and both have attractive balconies. The total area of each floor is just under 70m sq.

The top floor has not been decorated as yet and the current owner intended to live here while the two lower floors were rented to tourists.

There is parking near the property.

Please contact our island office to arrange to visit this and similar properties.
