Unique 16th century mansion in private bay on Hvar island.

Croatia Property Sales are the agents for this stunning old property, just a few metres from the sea, and 15 minutes drive from the nearest village.

It was recently modernised and made habitable and is laid out thus:

There is a ground floor which is a self-contained one bedroom apartment. The first floor has 2 bedrooms, bathroom and large kitchen and lounge, which leads to a balcony, facing out to sea. The top floor has 3 large bedrooms and a bathroom.

The property can be reached either by boat or car.

It sits on a plot of 900m sq.

In the bay there are only a few houses and ruins, it is a very peaceful place. There is car access and a private mooring for small boats, but no connection to mains water or electricity. Water is collected in an underground tank, and the electricity is from wind turbine and solar panels.

Please contact Croatia Property Sales for more details.
