Opis nemovitosti

A semi-detached, traditional charming stone house, 300 years old, located in the center of a town, near the sea.

The house is situated in a quiet town only 7 km from the ferry port. The place has all the necessary facilities, restaurant shops, bus station. On the ground floor there is a big storage room and the inner staircase leads to the first and second floors which are the residential area. From the top floor there is a nice view of the sea.

The house has a total of 130 m2 of living space. Complete reconstruction of the interior is required. The walls of the house are in good condition, while the floors are wooden.

Because of its great location, this property has tremendous potential.
