Immobilienbeschreibung

A semi-detached old stone house in the first row to the sea, overlooking the Kastela Bay and Split.

The house has three floors and a living area of 141 m2, as well as a small garden of 20 m2 in front of the house.

On the ground floor there is a large hallway with a staircase for the floors, living room, kitchen and bathroom. On the first floor there are two bedrooms and a bathroom, and in the loft space there is a large room that can be converted into two rooms.

All rooms have a unique view of the sea and are full of natural light. House has car access and the possibilities of parking in front of the house.

The house is in a beautiful location in the old part of an old fishermen's village, and it is suitable for tourist rental purposes, as well as everyday living.

For all questions please contact our CPS office in Split.
