Immobilienbeschreibung

We are pleased to offer this excellent value apartment just a few yards from the sea, on the mainland, in Kastela.

Kastela is a historic village, quite close to the airport (without being under the flight path), stretched along the coast between Trogir and the larger town of Split, perhaps 20 minutes driving to either.

The part of the village nearest the sea is made up of old Dalmatian style houses along narrow traditional streets where very little has changed in many years.

This property is just 160 yards from the sea and the Riva, a superb feature that is almost continual in front of the village.

The apartment measures 38m sq and above is an untouched attic (20m sq) which we could easily envisage becoming part of the residential space.

It is laid out as 2 bedrooms, bathroom, hall, kitchen and lounge in an open plan design.

It is on the second floor, and the entire property was completely refurbished only in 2012, with new plumbing, electrics, kitchen, flooring as well as decorating. It is completely ready to be inhabited.

There are plenty of shops that cater for tourists and local inhabitants, as well as bars, and some excellent Konobas.

This property is excellent value.

Please contact us to arrange a visit.
